Breakout Team Building

Are communication and collaboration essential for your team?
How about problem solving under pressure?

Breakout Team Building challenges your team's wits and collaborative skills to solve a mystery and escape from "danger." When you escape, or time expires, you will debrief with a seasoned organizational psychologist who will help you decipher lessons about becoming a high-performance team. But it's not over then. After the debrief, you will be thrown back into another breakout scenario to put team lessons to work.

Breakout Team Building is brought to you by Breakout and Credo Consulting

BREAKOUT

Breakout delivers live experiential games where you and your friends figure-out how to escape a room before the clock runs out. Each escape scenario calls on your ability to solve problems, communicate and work as a team.

Building Healthy & Productive Teams

Credo Consulting supports leaders in their quest to lead with integrity and build healthy and productive teams. We believe that teams rise and on fall on the conversations they have and don't have. Our work focuses on helping teams and leaders have the right conversations.

Communication, Collaboration, Teamwork, and Problem Solving are the most sought-after skills in the 21st century economy.
Let us help you take your team to a higher level.
